FINANCE MANAGER

Southern Cross Assurance is a leading insurance provider in Papua New Guinea, offering affordable and comprehensive insurance solutions for private, small business, and corporate clients. With a commitment to superior client servicing and efficient claims settlement, SCAL supports its offerings with robust reinsurance programs organized through their Lloyds accredited reinsurance broker. Located in Port Moresby, SCAL aims to be one of the most trusted and preferred insurers in the Pacific region, providing tailored insurance products and services to meet the unique needs of their clients.

Job Expectations & Key Responsibilities

The Finance Manager at Southern Cross Assurance is responsible for managing the financial operations of the company, ensuring the accuracy and integrity of financial information, and providing strategic financial guidance to support the company's objectives. This role involves overseeing financial planning, budgeting, reporting, and compliance activities while leading a team of finance professionals. The role also requires in-depth knowledge of the insurance industry to ensure financial practices align with industry standards and regulations.

The position will be evaluated based on the successful execution of various tasks and responsibilities, which may include financial planning and analysis, where the candidate will create and oversee annual budgets, forecasts, and financial strategies. Financial reporting is another critical aspect, ensuring the timely and accurate preparation of financial statements, management reports, and regulatory submissions. Additionally, risk management will play a role in establishing and upholding strong internal controls and financial procedures. Lastly, team leadership is essential, as the candidate will lead and mentor a team of finance professionals while promoting a collaborative and high-performing work environment.
